

INSOL Europe's 6th Eastern European Countries' Committee Conference

Hotel Continental, Timișoara • 7 – 8 May 2010

The need for Interim Management during restructuring

Catalin Scripcaru

Definition

- Interim Management is the temporary provision of management resources and skills
- Interim Management can be seen as the short-term assignment of a proven heavyweight interim executive manager to manage a period of transition, crisis or change within an organization

INSOL Europe's 6th Eastern European Countries' Committee Conference

Hotel Continental, Timișoara • 7 – 8 May 2010

Implementing the restructuring plan

- Urgently need an injection of real business expertise
- Need to deliver and embed significant business change
- Need an executive to remain exceptionally focused on agreed objective and to deliver value from day one
- Need a fresh eye and an independent position
- Need a specific skill and do not have it in-house

INSOL Europe's 6th Eastern European Countries' Committee Conference

Hotel Continental, Timișoara • 7 – 8 May 2010

Why should Interim Management be used?

In restructuring you need to act immediately and one of the biggest enemies in such situations is time.

INSOL Europe's 6th Eastern European Countries' Committee Conference

Hotel Continental, Timișoara • 7 – 8 May 2010

Qualities of an Interim Manager

- A willingness to take responsibility and a dedication to identifying the real priorities
- An ability to listen and assimilate information from different parties (bank/sponsors, shareholders, employees , clients)
- The charisma to gain the respect of parties

INSOL Europe's 6th Eastern European Countries' Committee Conference

Hotel Continental, Timișoara • 7 – 8 May 2010

Conclusion

Research shows that, again and again, interim managers successfully improve business performance, generating enormous cost savings and generating successful turnaround measures